Coach Peacock,

I would like to let you know how much I enjoyed and valued the Father/Son Retreat this weekend. It really was a great experience - from spending quality time with Andy to making friends with all the great Dads and Coaches. Linda and David are still out of town, so Andy and I went out to dinner last night and I can tell how much more comfortable we are with each other. You taught us that by talking openly, we actually have a lot more in common than dads and sons normally think they do. Most importantly, you showed us it is ok to hug and say I love you.

Coach, you are doing a great thing with the Father/Son Retreat and my prayers will be with you for its continued success. Please thank your Coaches for me as well. They are all exceptional men.

Thank you and God Bless,

Mike Couture

PS Not only did I get a hug from Andy before we went to bed last night, I made him promise that we will give each other a hug at night as long as we are under the same roof.
